Judson University Athletics ... On the Rise!

THE 2008-09 SEASON

Judson rebounded in the 2008-09 season and won 18 games to finish above .500 for the first time since the 2005-06 season. Judson started off 8-4 but then dropped four games in a row to even their record at .500. They then won nine of their next 10 games to jump to 17-9 but lost three of their final four games.

Judson did finish second in the CCAC behind Cardinal Stritch and received the #2 seed in the CCAC Tournament. Hosting Trinity International, Judson lost 60-58 to end their season.

30-POINT PRODUCTION

In a critical CCAC meeting with Trinity International, Aubrey Parsons scored a career-high 32 points to lift Judson to a 66-64 win in their first CCAC meeting. She hit two free throws with just under three seconds left to give Judson the win. Her 32 points were also a season high for Judson in a single game and was the second best in the CCAC.

CCAC REBOUNDING CHAMPION

For the second year in a row, Alicia Rovertoni claimed the CCAC rebounding crown. She averaged 10.6 rebounds per game and finished 1.1 rebounds ahead of the player behind her. She grabbed 20 rebounds in a game, twice, and had 10 double-doubles on the year.

JUDSON SINGLE SEASON TOP 10

Three players have put their names in the Judson University women's basketball season top 10 in Alicia Rovertoni, Kristi Siemers, and Aubrey Parsons. Rovertoni finished fourth overall in rebounds in a season (308) and rebounding average (10.6). Siemers was eighth in three-point field goals made (51) and three-point field goal attempts (144). Parsons then tied 10th for free throws made in a season with 99.

JUDSON CAREER TOP 10

Alicia Rovertoni moved up on the chart in rebounding and rebounds. She is fourth all-time at Judson in rebounding average at 7.6 and is eighth in career rebounds with 648.

BIG WIN VS. WHEATON

For the first time, ever, in the history of Judson University women's basketball, Judson defeated Wheaton College, 74-64. Judson led by 10 points at the half and then went on to keep their lead for the win. Wheaton College is a NCAA Division III program. Aubrey Parsons led Judson with 21 points.

CCAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Judson University won the CCAC Player of the Week award five times. Two different players took home the honor, twice, in Aubrey Parsons and Kirstin Johns. Alicia Rovertoni won the award once.

CCAC AWARDS

Three players earned All-CCAC as two were on the first team and one on the honorable mention team. Both Alicia Rovertoni and Kirstin Johns were on the first team. It was the second year in a row that Rovertoni was on the first team and it was the first time for Johns to earn the award.

NCCAA NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Only one player won the award this season in Kirstin Johns. She won the award for her performance in two contests. She averaged a double-double on the week with 19 points and 10 rebounds and helped Judson sweep Trinity International in CCAC play.

NCCAA ALL-REGION

Both Kirstin Johns and Alicia Rovertoni gained NCCAA North Central All-Region status. It was a first for both players.

NAIA SCHOLAR-ATHLETE

Gaining a top academic honor, Alicia Rovertoni was voted onto the NAIA scholar-athlete list. She was the fourth Judson player to receive that award this season as three soccer players also won the award.

IN THE CCAC

Five different players were ranked consistently in the CCAC statistics all year long.

Alicia Rovertoni - 1st rebounding (10.6), 5th in steals (2.00), 12th field goal percentage (.375), and 18th scoring (8.4).
