JU Team Notes

LAST TIME OUT

Judson opened the 2009-10 season with a 66-50 loss to Viterbo. Alicia Rovertoni (Columbia, IL/Columbia HS) picked up her 21st career double-double leading Judson with 13 points and 15 rebounds. Kristi Siemers (Bensonville, IL/Oakton CC) added 12 points while ShaRhonda Huff had 10. Judson was down only seven points at the half, 36-29.

They followed that game with an exhibition game on Monday, November 9th, at Western Illinois. They fell to the NCAA Division I program, 68-30.

FIRST STARTS

Starting for the first time at Judson against Viterbo were two freshmen in ShaRhonda Ruff and Rachel McBride. In their first collegiate game, Ruff finished with 10 points while McBride had one rebound and two assists.

LOOKING FOR OFFENSE

In the past two games, Judson's offense has been trying to find the right combination. In their first game, they scored 50 points but then against Western Illinois they finished with only 30. They shot 29% vs. Viterbo and only 22% vs. Western Illinois.

NEW PLAYERS

With the new season brings new players. In the opening game vs. Viterbo, four new players saw action. Both Ruff and McBride started and then Ima Petion and Shannan Callahan saw time on the floor. Callahan played in 10 minutes while Petion was in for nine minutes and had two points and two rebounds.

In 2007-08, as the men's coach, he guided Judson to their first-ever CCAC regular season and tournament championship along with going to their first-ever NAIA National Tournament.
