Judson University Athletics ... On the Rise!

THE 2009-10 SEASON

It was a season of ups and downs for Judson University as they finished 9-19 and 3-7 in the CCAC. They played five games in which they faced nationally ranked opponents in Cardinal Stritch, Aquinas, St. Xavier, and St. Francis (IN). Judson never reached the .500 mark and battled the whole season to try and reach that plateau. At one point in the season, they were two games away at 2-4 and 5-7 but could not make it happen.

Individually, Alicia Rovertoni won the CCAC rebounding crown for the third straight year and finished with over 900 points and 900 rebounds.

FOUR-YEAR PLAYERS

Judson had three players that were four year members of the women's basketball team in Alicia Rovertoni, Kirstin Johns, and Crystal Goodall. Rovertoni finished with 30 career double-doubles, 901 points, and 928 rebounds. She is second all-time at Judson in rebounds and third in rebounding average (9.1 pg). Rovertoni is also a three-time All-CCAC First-Team selection and rebounding champion. Kirstin Johns finished with 931 points, 403 rebounds and 173 assists along with 42 blocks. She was selected to an All-CCAC team three times and won several player of the week awards. She finished her career at ninth all-time for blocks. Goodall provided 612 points, 288 rebounds, and 189 assists. She was a constant at point guard for Judson.

CCAC REBOUNDING CHAMPION X3

Claiming three straight CCAC rebounding crowns, Alicia Rovertoni averaged 10 rebounds per game to keep the crown for another year. She finished 1.8 rebounds per game ahead of the second place finisher. Overall, she had 270 rebounds.

JUDSON SINGLE SEASON TOP 10

Alicia Rovertoni put her name in the single season top 10, again, for rebounds and rebounding average. She finished with 270 rebounds which ties her for eighth. She also was sixth in rebounding average at 10.0. She was mentioned twice in each category as she made the top 10 last year, too.

JUDSON CAREER TOP 10

Three players finished their careers in the Judson career top 10 for women's basketball. Alicia Rovertoni has the highest finish as she is second in rebounding (928) and third in rebounding average (9.1). Both Kirstin Johns and Kristi Siemers finished in ninth in their categories. Johns is ninth all-time in blocks at 42. Siemers is ninth in three different categories. She finished with 96 three-pointers made, 273 three-point attempts, and had a .352 three-point field goal percentage.

CCAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Three players earned CCAC Player of the Week once. Lindsey Jordan, Alicia Rovertoni, and ShaRhonda Huff all won the award once in the season.

CCAC AWARDS

Alicia Rovertoni and Kirstin Johns both picked up All-CCAC awards. For the third year in a row, Rovertoni made the All-CCAC First Team for her play. Johns earned her third All-CCAC award being named to the honorable mention team.

NCCAA ALL-REGION

Earning a spot on the NCCAA All-Region team were Alicia Rovertoni, Kirstin Johns, and Aubrey Parsons. It was the second year in a row for both Rovertoni and Johns to make the team and the first for Parsons.

ACADEMICS

Two players earned academic awards for the women's basketball team as one took all three awards. Rovertoni was named a NAIA and NCCAA scholar athlete for the second year in a row. She also gained a spot on the CCAC All-Academic team. Aubrey Parsons then made the NCCAA Scholar-Athlete team.
